

What actually happens to people when they begin to talk 'religion'?

What does it mean to use English as 'a public language' to speak about religious things that are personal?

And how can our own interfaith dialogue benefit others?

Training in Trialogue

Learn to facilitate your own inter-religious trialogue session! The Three Faiths Forum is offering you a free 3-session course to help you run your own interfaith workshops. This course is a must if you are interested in interfaith dialogue!

- Improve your communication skills
